

I do not want my privacy and life again invaded by telephone calls that solicit business, etc. I appreciate the fact that in IN this is not possible at this time. I would be dismayed if 'big business' was able to get their way and once again force me to waste my time answering calls at all hours and end up being rude to people who do not take no for an answer.